

PUBLIC COLLEGE OF COMMERCE
DIMAPUR: NAGALAND

SEMINAR COMMITTEE

A Seminar Committee of Public College of Commerce is constituted with a view to conduct seminars at different levels i.e. to organize inter-college, intra-college, regional and national seminars in the college. The Committee consists of seven members including six teaching and one non teaching staff of the college. One of the members from the faculty shall be the convener of the committee, who will take initiatives to organize seminars in the college and keep all records of the same.

Objectives:

The seminar committee of the college has been set up to fulfill the following objectives –

1. To create a platform to share knowledge of the scholars and intellectuals
2. To inspire and generate new ideas and thinking
3. To expertise in someone's own area of study
4. To disseminate messages to the society
5. To provide a platform to the faculty members to present papers and to undertake research activities

Note:

1. Seminar Committee shall be reconstituted whenever it is necessary.
2. The convener of the committee shall retain the documents of different programmes held in the college.

Principal