

Code of Conduct/Ethics for Principal

The Principal of an Institution should always be honest, fair, objective, supportive, protective and law abiding. Besides, the following traits are expected from the Principal. He/she has to

- Chalk out policies and plans to execute the vision and mission.
- Recommend and forward communication to the authorities.
- Ensure that the staff and students are aware of the rules, policies and procedures laid down by the college and enforce them appropriately.
- Monitor, manage and educate the administration of the institution and take remedial measures/actions based on the stakeholders' feedback.
- Execute any other qualitative and quantitative works for the welfare of the institution.
- Empower all his/her staff and students to reach their maximum potential.
- Listen to the students' ideas and set a supportive tone.
- Be fair in his/her disciplinary actions for all the members of the faculty, non-teaching staff and students.
- Promote industry institution interaction and inculcate research development activities.
- Carry himself/herself with the highest integrity and he/she has to exhibit outstanding and strong leadership skills.